A SECOND DIODEN.—An old man of very acute physiognomy, answering to the name of Jacob Wilmot, was brought before the police court. His clothes looked as if they might have been bought second hand in his youthful prime, for they had suffered more from the rubs of the world than the proprietor himself.

"What business?"

"None, I am a traveler."

"A vagabond, perhaps?"

"You are not far wrong. Travelers and vagabonds are about the same thing. The difference that the latter travel without money; the former without brains."

"Where have you traveled?"

"All over the continent."

"For what purpose?"

"Observation."

"What have you observed?"

"A little to command, much to censure, and very much to laugh at!"

"Humph! what do you command?"

"A handsome woman who will stay at home; an eloquent preacher that will preach short sermons; a good writer that will not write to much; and a fool that has sense enough to hold his tongue."

"What do you censure?"

"A man who marries a girl for her fine clothes; a youth who studies law or medicine while he has the use of his hands; and the people who elect a drunkard to office."

"What do you laugh at?"

"I laugh at a man who expects his position to command that respect which his personal qualities and qualifications do not merit." He was dismissed.

MOUNT VERNON ESTATE.—It will be remembered that the grave of Washington with a few hundred acres of land connected therewith, was purchased, a few years since, by the patriotic ladies of the nation, assisted by Edward Everett.

The property was owned by a traitor bearing the sacred name of Washington—a distant relation of "the Father of his country"—(as distant as hell is from heaven)—who has since been killed in the rebel service. The price demanded for the precious bones was $20,000, which was paid. It is now stated that the keepers of the Mount Vernon estate are all traitors—that not a loyal foot treads the premises, except when visitors are present. Is not this a burning shame, and an infamous disgrace, that should claim the consideration of the Government? The bones of Washington in the care of traitors? We would as soon trust the devil with the sacred relics of the church.—[San Jose Mercury.]

FANNY FERN thus beautifully expresses the feeling of utter loneliness and desolation—the "strong yearning and passionate pain"—of those who are written homeless: "We sometimes think it is only the homeless who can understand its full meaning, the word 'Home'!"

Think what it must mean to those whose desolate hearts no smile cheers; who pass daily thousands of their fellow creatures intent on their own errands of business or pleasure, to whom their life or death is a matter of no moment; who put to their feet, and up in our parts the gals call them majors. That's what I mean, and what's the use of a fuss about it? That's what I want to know."

"It seems that we are laboring under a mistake," said the head of the family, "but when there are young ladies in the room I don't think I'd mention such things. The ladies of the city are too delicate for such vulgar names."

The Vermonter promised to be more careful in future, and the family are doing well.—[Boston Paper.]

A GEM.—We are told that far down through the ocean, fair white shells are constantly falling, like snow-flakes in a breathless winter day, that strew, with downy drifts, the prairie of the sea. So the rude wrecks and unsurrendered dead must in the course of years receive a silent burial, as if one should hide a sleeper's form with leaves of lilies, and the winds pass them by unstirred. This shower is made of microscopic shells, they say, but in reality the old miniatures of nameless tribes that once held atoms of the life that fills the creation; the old armor of warriors fought their sparkles of a day and died; now, through the dense heaven of a sea, let gently down upon that plain. No storms are there, no change of seasons, and no murmur of the World.—Along that prairie they will lay the telegraphic nerve, and through these downy drifts the quick intelligence will come and go. Through that dumb realm will pass the brother's call to brother, round the world, and syllables of love and hope will pulsate like a heart within the rough Atlantic.

An enrolling officer in Maryland called for all the males in the family at a lowly cottage, and the old lady, who was the only one at home, after naming several, stopped short. "Is there no one else?" asked the officer. "No," replied she, "none except Billy Bray." "Billy Bray! where is he?" "He was at the barn a moment ago," said the old lady. Out went the officer, but he could not see the man. Coming back, he questioned the old lady as to the age of Billy, and went away, after carefully enrolling his name.

The time of the drafting came, and one of those on whom the lot fell was Billy Bray. No one knew him. Where did he live? The officer who enrolled him was called on to produce him; and lo! behold Billy Bray was a jackass! and stands now on the list of drafted men, as forming the quota of Maryland.

Who is the largest man?—The lover; he is a man of tremendous size.

APRIL 20, 1864.

BY PRIVATE MILES O'REILLY.

Three years ago to-day

We raised our hands to heaven,

And on the rolls of muster

Our names were thirty-seven;

There were just a thousand bayonets,

And the swords were thirty-seven,

As we took the oath of service

With our right hands raised to heaven.

Oh 'twas a gallant day,

In memory still adored,

QUINCY,

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1864.

For President, 1864.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

For Vice-President.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

We observe the course of the Central Committee has been commented upon by various papers, some of whom assume a querulous tone. We have no room for remarks this week,—may notice its action in our next.

STRAWS.—The Flag gives a list of the Union firms in San Francisco, who advertise in Brown's Press. Among them are the proprietors of the Russ House, International Hotel, Globe Hotel and Railroad House.

The "go-cart" and the "load of hay" don't run together on the Congressional issue.—[Appeal.]

That's lucky for both of them. Cause why? they would be run off the Congressional "dug-way" together.

GOLD HILL MESSAGE.—This is the name of a new paper lately started at Gold Hill, Nevada Territory, and published by Geo. W. Bloor & Co. The Message is a "pink" in typographical appearance and its editorial columns are ably conducted. Success to the Message.

SHANNON.—We know that if Shannon receives the regular nomination, he will not decline it; and we feel certain that he is rather anxious to get it; and we firmly believe and hope that he will receive it.—[Solano Press]

We hope that the Press is correct in its surmises, but the Nevada Gazette thinks differently. The Gazette is outside of the District, however, and is not expected to know everything. Has the Gazette any axe to grind, hey?

In noticing a little play of words between the Red Bluff Independent and this paper, the old savage of the Piute gets off the following:

"These fellows put us in mind of the fox that lost his tail by a steel-trap, and assembling his tribe, urged them all to have theirs taken off also, as they would feel much better. But they concluded to didn't."

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Mountain Messenger, in noticing a lecture delivered by Mr. O'Grady, a young law student at Downieville, sums it up in the following complimentary manner:

We would not disparage the lecture, but our reverence for the truth compels us to say that it was a little the flattest, softest, most nonsensical attempt at a lecture, that it has ever been our misfortune to listen to. Mr. O'Grady may be a man of fine attainments, a good linguist, and all that—but he can't lecture.

The subject was Slavery. The gist of the whole amounts to this: O'Grady is a Dimwit.

SORE-HEADED.—A copperhead correspondent of the Express, in writing from Susanville, says:

EDITORS EXPRESS:—As our county government is now under full headway, I will try to give you a few items in relation to some of our officials and those who are not officials. In the first place, our Sheriff elect, Mr. Byers, could not find talent sufficiently good in our county to fill the office of Under Sheriff; so he gets one over from Plumas county, in the person of Captain DeHaven, ex-County Clerk of that county. This certainly is a poor compliment to his many friends, and still more so to Lassen county.

Byers! why don't you ask the advice and get the consent of the Copperheads in Lassen, before you make appointments or transact business? If "talent" is the only requirement, take the correspondent, "Observer." That would be complimentary, if not "more so." Don't you see?

WANTED.—Information is wanted respecting the whereabouts of one Tom Shannon, and two particular friends of his by the name of Higby and Cole. They are supposed to have left the State some two years ago, since which time nothing has been heard from them. Any information respecting their acts or whereabouts will be thankfully received by their distressed and humbugged constituents. Washington papers please copy.—[Express.]

The Express need not ask the information "all the way from Washington." The Grass Valley National can inform you where Cole is, and whether he has been heard from. It is all "bosh" for the Express to ask information about Tom Shannon, for that individual has worried the Express considerably, if not more, during the past eighteen months, if we take the columns of that paper as a criterion. As to the "humbugging" arrangements, did not the Express "tell you so all the time?" There is no doubt that the Express is awfully distressed because Shannon is in Congress, and also because it fears that he may be re-elected.

CANDIDATES.

The Editor-in-Chief of this paper having business (legal, not political) of importance to attend to in the new county of Lassen, has left us in charge this week, and as it has been his custom to write a leader of considerable length for publication, we, (not to disappoint the readers of the UNION,) will try and follow in his footsteps to the extent of a column or two.

As he left us no written instructions as to the course we were to pursue in regard to the political department, we have been canvassing (to ourselves) the probable chances and various noted attainments of the different candidates for the Presidency, with the intention of hoisting the name of the one which suited us, and giving him a terrible puff. The conclusions were nearly as follows, and since one candidate has already been nominated, we will commence with him, viz: John Chawles Fremont, "sarcastically" nicknamed the Pathfinder; but we fear that he will never be able to find the path which leads to the Presidential chair. His party have adopted the name of Radical Democrats! That last name has been used in such a manner, and by such a party of late, that it is actually obnoxious to the great mass of our American citizens; so we will "drop" him, hoping that the Democrats who may meet in the Chicago Convention will endorse him and rush to the rescue of the persecuted hero. By-the-by, if Chawles ever gets to be President, look out for "Jessie." Next comes Little Mac, called for short the "Chickahominy Grave Digger," who is using his "strategy my boy," for the purpose of making a flank movement, so that his base of supplies may rest in the chair at present occupied by the "tyrannical despot" of constitutional demagogues, "Abe Linkin." But Mac. is noted for nothing, save masterly activity in getting into bad scrapes and laying the blame on others. We will let him slide, for he will come just as near being President, as he did in having that New York Sanitary Fair sword presented to him by the votes and dollars of the New York Copperheads, to get which, considerable "strategy" was used to a good purpose. There are several others, of lesser note, whose names are mentioned in connection with the highest office in the gift of man. Seymours, two of peaceable intentions! but they will have to open their eyes and see more of the spirit and intention of the American people, before they can ever aspire to the White House, except it be the travelling White House of the would be Confederacy of Jefferson Davis Esquire. Then there is that Villian dam-him, formerly of Ohio, at present rusticking and cooling his political ardor in the romantic wilds of Canada. He is the man whose friends in this section could go into the fight with such great hopes, and battle so manfully for the Union as it is and the Constitution as it was. Val. won't do, except for a dead weight at the end of a tight rope.

The balance of the candidates might as well be put in a sack together, for they will never be "mine host" of the Presidential mansion, for Abraham Lincoln is that, and if the Convention which met on Tuesday last renominated him, then he will remain for the coming four years, at least.

SENSIBLE.—As we celebrated last year the capture of Vicksburg on the 4th, we may have occasion to celebrate the capture of Richmond this year. Let us move immediately and give the Committee of Arrangements time to engage an eloquent orator of the day.—Appeal.

You need not go out of town to find one. Jesse O. Goodwin is the best speaker in California to-day by a long shot. If you don't elect him to Congress it will be the country's loss as much as yours.—[Star.]

We have no poor candidates for Congress in this District, and this is fortunate, because let who wins the nomination, we should be well represented.—Appeal.

The Appeal told the truth that time, sure.

An old fellow who became weary of his life, thought he might commit suicide, but he did not wish to go without first forgiving all his enemies. So cogitating within himself, he at last removed the noose from his neck, saying:

"No, 'twon't do—can't go. I never can nor will forgive old Noah for letting them copperheads snaked into the ark. The nasty varmints have killed two thousand dollars worth of my cattle, and when he and I meet, I know there'll be a general muss. See if there won't!"—[Ex.]

That fellow's conclusion was about right; but the damage did him, was but a start to that did to the United States by the copperheads of the present day.

MUST BE STAMPED.—Instructions have been sent from the Department at Washington, that all city, town and other corporation scrip, must bear the same stamp as those used on mortgages. If this is so, it is very important to know as it will embrace county scrip, and the Auditor will be obliged to stamp all warrants issued—of course it will be at the expense of the person in whose favor it is drawn.

FREMONT'S ACCEPTANCE.—A long letter from Fremont, accepting the nomination of the Cleveland Convention, concludes as follows:

If the Convention at Baltimore will nominate any man whose past life justified a well grounded confidence in his fidelity to our cardinal principles, there is no reason why there should be any division among the really patriotic men of the country. To any such I shall be most happy to give a cordial and most active support. My own decided preference is to aid in this way and not be myself a candidate. But if Lincoln be re-nominated, as I believe it would be fatal to the country to endorse the policy and renew the power which has cost us the lives of thousands of men and needlessly put the country on the road to bankruptcy, there will remain no alternative but to organize against him every element of conscientious opposition, with a view to prevent the misfortune of his re-election.

If he had had said, I accept the nomination, because I am an enemy to Lincoln and his friends, it would have been true, and contained the whole meaning in fewer words.

A DISPATCH AS IS A DISPATCH.—The following dispatch was received at Washington, May 13th, from General Ingalls, Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the Potomac—it having positive information from the front as late as noon of May 12th:

We have made a "ten strike" to-day. Hancock went in at daylight. He has taken over four thousand prisoners and twenty-five guns, and is still fighting. Everybody is fighting, and has been for eight days. We shall have them this pop, though it may take a day or two more. Our losses are heavy—can't say how many. If Augur's forces were here now we could finish them to-day. Hancock captured General Ned Johnson and two other Generals, besides lots of lower grades. The old Republic is firm. Grant is a giant and a hero in war, but all our Generals are gallant; and as to our men, the world never had better.

Yours in haste, INGALLS.

General Ingalls may be set down as a hero and a patriot. He talks like a lover of his country.—[Sac. Union.]

DISTANCES FROM RICHMOND.—To Petersburgh, 22 miles; White House, 24; Fredricksburg, 60; Guinea Station, 48; Milford, 38; Chesterfield, 25; Hanover Junction, 23; Taylorville, 20; Hungry Gap, 8; Port Walthal, 16; Fredericksburgh, 50; Louis. Court House, 62; Gordonsville, 76; Beaver Dam, 40;—[Ex.]

The distance ain't much, though a portion of the road has been an awful rough one for some of our Generals to travel; but in a short time, our fighting General will be able to grant a free pass to that city.

TO COPPERHEADS.—The following, is the opinion Southerners have of Northern copperheads:

"Though we can but despise these men for their perfidy towards their own section, yet as their conduct tends to embarrass our powerful and unscrupulous enemy, we should prove recreant to our duty to our own country not to encourage this conduct for our own advantage."

How do you like it?

THE TRICK.—The following, taken from the S. F. Mining Press, speaks for itself:

To give our readers a slight idea as to how our Eastern stocksharers work the rise in Gold to suit themselves, we make the following extract from the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, which illustrates a case in point. It plainly shows that the recent unprecedented advance in gold has little or nothing, comparatively speaking, to do with the conditions and prospects of the war. The Eastern papers assert that there is a bill before the Senate, and which will undoubtedly become a law, imposing pains and penalties on those who, in the interest of gold, conspire against the happiness and welfare of the people. More real injury is done to the interests of the Union by these speculators than would be the loss in many instances of a battle; and measures, however harsh and stringent, that may be enacted against such abuses, will be applauded and sternly maintained by the community.

"WOOLLY HORSE."—The Monitor, a Catholic paper published in San Francisco, has come out for the Radical Democrat, John C. Fremont, for President.

SIGNIFICANT.—The War Democra's of the Eastern States are bringing all the influence to bear, that they possess, to secure the nomination of D. S. Dickinson for Vice-President.

Seven brokers on Third street, at the suggestion of a leading spirit, bought large quantities of gold at the lowest point, early Thursday morning. About 10 o'clock, in accordance with the scheme agreed on, they simultaneously telegraphed to their ten correspondents to purchase fifty thousand dollars in gold, without limit as to price, but limiting the time to ten minutes after receipt of instructions. The effect was instantaneous. Ten brokers in the New York market, each one eager to earn his commission, without limit to price, all bidding against each other, of course gold went up with a bound. At this point the ten conspirators unloaded their gold at a handsome profit, and instantly sold gold short, or, in other words, agreed to deliver to purchasers at a less figure than the maximum, knowing as they did that gold would fall when relieved of the pressure they had put upon it. It did fall, and they again bagged a handsome return at the expense of their fellow-gamblers, who are, of course, savage at the way they have been "wriggled out." We have it from the best authority that their profits averaged one hundred thousand dollars apiece.—[Ex.]

UNION STATE CONVENTION.—The Union State Convention, for the nomination of Electors, has been called to meet at Sacramento on the 10th of August next.

Does the State Platform of the Democratic party, recently adopted in the Convention at San Francisco, favor peace or does it favor war?—[Quincy Union.]

Of course it does? Why do you ask such foolish questions, Buckbee?

Constitutional Democrats "pay their money and takes their choice."—[Nevada Gazette.]

Stidger knows. Satisfactory!

RADICAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—For President, John C. Fremont; for Vice-President, General John Cochrane, of New York.

Who starts the ball in Plumas?

EASTERN NEWS.—It is reported that the Mayor of Richmond was arrested and confined in Castle Thunder, for proposing to surrender the city in case of necessity, instead of burning it as had been proposed. Every man and boy, and even foreign subjects, were pressed into the service. Rebel paper complain of Joe Johnson and say that he is whipped. Some of Grant's forces are within five miles of Richmond, and the siege of that city has commenced. The Sacramento Union has several columns of news, and it can be summed up as follows:

LOCAL ITEMS.

INDEBTEDNESS.—The total debt of the county amounts to a trifle over $21,000.

COME AT LAST.—The Statutes of California, for the year 1864, have been received by our County Officials.

PERSONAL.—We see by the Old Plate that Mr. Chas. Rawson has assumed the business charge of that paper.

IN MARKET.—Apricots, cucumbers, beets, &c., raised in the lower valleys, have made their appearance in market.

SMETLING.—The castings and machinery, for the smelting works in Genesee Valley, passed through our town a few days since.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Frank Fuller, Ex-Governor of Utah, is at present stopping in our county, for the purpose of investigating its mineral resources.

MASONIC.—Remember the Celebration of the 24th, at Sausalito, Lassen county. The citizens of that place intend making it a grand affair.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—Mr. C. Low will, hereafter, "handle the reins" on the Stage Route, between this place and Buckeye.

HOPKIN'S CREEK.—The mines, in this section of our county, are paying well. Some of the claims are paying an ounce per day to the hand.

LOST.—Two notes, stolen from Esq. Metcalf, of Gopher Hill, are advertised in another column, and parties are cautioned against buying the same.

DELINQUENTS.—The delinquent share-holders in the Butte Bar G. & M. Co., will find an item of interest, to them, in our advertising columns.

WORK TOGETHER.—It is strange that some people can never work in harmony, especially when the object to be attained is to forward a good work; such as the Sanitary Commission, for instance.

ON HIS WAY.—It is reported that Atlas Frey, a well known citizen of Honey Lake Valley, has been seen on the road to his former place of residence.

COMING.—Large droves of cattle are arriving in our county every week. Feed is so scarce in the lower valleys, that the owners of stock are driving them to the mountains, where grass is more plenty.

SURVEYOR.—J. J. L. Peel Esq., has entered upon the discharge of his duties, as County Surveyor, and has appointed Mr. J. Archer, of Genesee Valley, as his deputy. Orders left at the Clerk's office, will be attended to.

4TH BALL.—The Ball to be given at Taylor's new Hotel, in Indian Valley, will, undoubtedly, be the "Ball of the season," and as it is the opening Ball, we hope that every one will turn out and give Mr. T. a benefit, in reality.

NOTARY.—As Mr. Buckbee is absent, we will inform the citizens of this place and vicinity, that he has received the appointment of Notary Public, for this county. We presume that J. R.'s basfulness has prevented his making a note of it.

REVENUE.—One thousand Foreign Mining Licenses were sold by the Tax Collector, for the month of May. The amount of revenue, from different sources, for the same month, amounted to the sum of $6,000.

SCRIPT.—The County Treasurer is redeeming all warrants on the General Fund, issued prior to January 1, 1863. Warrants on the Indigent Sick, Road, and Building Funds are nearly all paid. At the next settlement, script will be redeemed to April or May 1863.

WATCH OUT.—Men too lazy to work, and not too honest to steal and murder, are bumming around in some portions of our county. Let our citizens be prepared to furnish them a warning reception, if they attempt any of their thieving propensity in this section.

SCHOOL TAX.—Polls were opened at this place on Saturday last. About sixty votes were polled, and the majority in favor of the tax, was about twenty. As yet, no returns have been received from any other precinct, and if the citizens on the outside, have let the election go by default, they are reminded that it was their own negligence, and no cussing will be in order.

ROBBERY.—On Tuesday, June 7th, the cabin of E. H. Metcalf Esq., at Gopher Hill, was broken open, and the following articles stolen: Forty dollars in gold, one gold ring, valued at $25; one eight-inch Colt's revolver, one horse-headed catch, and two roses (advertised in another column). Mr. Metcalf was at work in his claim at the time, and upon his going to his house to learn the time of day, he discovered the losses. No clue has yet been had of the robbers.

SANITARY.—Will the citizens of Quincy do their share in making the Fair, to be held at Indian Valley, in aid of the Sanitary Fund, a success? If so, send in your contributions. Make the list from Quincy, equal, if not greater than that of any other portion of our county. Mr. S. J. Clark, County Treasurer, has kindly offered to receive, and forward any, and all contributions to headquarters. See to it. Let each citizen of Quincy, man, woman and child, send in their contributions.

PLUMS QUARTZ.—The quartz mill of Moses, Waterworth, Shanon & Co., for a run of three and a half days, cleaned up eighty ounces of gold. The rock crushed, was taken from the Mclellan ledge, in Indian Valley.

MOSSES JOHN Blood & Co.'s mill, for a run of five days, took out over $8,000.

The Crescent company cleaned up $4,000, for four days crushing. The Buckeye company is paying about $10 per ton. The Golden Gate mill, at Round Valley, will be in running order, in a few weeks.

TWO MEN KILLED.—On Monday evening last, two men were killed in Honey Lake Valley, under the following circumstances: Mr. J. Boddy and Philip Wales have been living as near neighbors to each other, for a long time past, and on the evening referred to, Mr. Boddy went to the house of Mr. Wales, for the purpose (as appeared by the evidence) of getting a wagon of hay, which was left with Wales. A dispute arose in regard to it, and it appeared that Wales first shot Boddy in the leg with a revolver, and that the two then clinched each other, and Boddy got possession of the pistol and shot Wales, the ball entering his side. Wales, or some one else, then procured a shotgun and discharged the contents at Boddy, hitting him in the breast. The above are the facts, as near as they could be ascertained. On the following morning, both men were found lying dead, in front of the house.

FORWARDED.—It is currently reported that considerable money has been collected in this place, during the past two weeks, in aid of the Sanitary Fund, and that it has been forwarded to the Agent, in San Francisco. We presume that some of the parties are opposed to having their good deeds made public, or, are opposed to having them appear in this paper. We shall see.

GET YOUR MONEY.—J. E. Edwards Esq., Treasurer of the Plumas County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, gives notice, through our advertising columns, that he has received the amount donated by the State, to aid of the Society, and that he will pay all premiums, awarded by the Society at the last annual Fair, which remains unpaid.

BURGARS.—Some would-be-penitentiary-birds made an attempt to break into the store of Chas. Chaplin Esq., on Rich Bar, one night last week, but the noise awoke Mr. C., and upon his getting up, the would-be-robbers decamped in hot haste, without getting his just deserts, viz., an ounce of cold lead.

STAMPS.—Institutions have been sent from the Department at Washington, that all city, town, and other corporations, scrip, must bear the same stamp as those used on mortgages.

THE Silver Mountain Bulletin says some rascals of that burg, inflamed with strong drink, utterly regardless of the vengeance of wooden gods, and unrestrained by any admiration for almond eyes, tails or chopsticks, made a foray into the abomincle of one Hop Lee, and played the devil generally. The proprietor, who is not related, and bears no resemblance to his namesake, the rebel chieftain, refused to draw up his forces, and offered no resistance. The account of the outrage, which he gave to the reporter is in the following words: "Mow pin ki kong, tu hawmow yip si go jun ya goun chin, yet go yan, tink no hoy, com som chow chow, sim so loco bit, sow got ti licensee qui, no num, san chu. Chinamen all same one sheep, he no likee fight, Melican he too muchee sabe fight; what for—me no likee." The Bulletin expresses a hope that the offenders may be hung.

GOOD ADVICE.—A few weeks ago a young foreigner made himself remarkable at one of the rouge-et-noir tables, in Baden Baden, by his reckless and desperate gambling. For many hours in succession he had invariably lost upon every point upon which he had ventured. At length, taking a single golden Napoleon between his finger and thumb, he showed it to the croupier. "Here," said he, "is the last piece of gold of which I am now the owner. Where, my friend, would you advise me to put it?"

"Monsier," replied the croupier, "as you ask my opinion, and appeal to me as a friend, and tell me that it is your last Napoleon, my advice to you is to put it—in your pocket."

AFFECTIONATE WOMAN.—Good-looking men must be scarce or at a great discount in Markleeville, judging from the following from the Chronicle :

"We have heard of the woman that kissed the cow, but we have seen the woman that kissed the horse. A few days since a team arrived here from below, when one of Markleeville's fairest daughters came out of the house and putting her arms around the neck of one of the leaders, deliberately "smacked" him. The horse, by whining and rubbing his face against the lady, seemed to appreciate it. It appears that the horse had been brought over the plains by the lady, and had become very much attached to her, and it was no doubt reciprocated, as her kind act proved.

MEASUREMENT.—The following table of the number of pounds of various things to the bushel, may be of interest to our readers :

Wheat, sixty pounds.
Shelled corn, fifty-six.
Corn on the cob, seventy.
Rye, fifty-six.
Barley, forty.
Potatoes, sixty.
Bran, twenty.
Clover seed, sixty.
Timothy seed, forty-five.
Flax seed, forty-five.
Hemp seed, forty.
Buckwheat, fifty-two.
Blue-grass seed, fourteen.
Castor beans, forty-six.
Dried peaches, thirty-three.
Dried apples, twenty-four.
Salt, fifty.

THE greatest triumph of English alliteration, according to the London Quarterly, is the following line, composed by a young lady in the year 1760, on the occasion of a gentleman planting a lane with lilacs :

"Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane."

PRESIDENT Lincoln's thin appearance demonstrates that the Presidency is not a fat office.

PRISONERS ESCAPED.—Joseph Coffin and Bob Durkin, two of the hardest cases out of San Quentin, escaped from the Marysville jail, Monday afternoon last, by throwing a rope on the window of the Marshal's office, by which means they scaled the jail wall. The Marysville jail is fast acquiring a reputation for frequent escapes; in fact, ranks nearly as high in such disgraceful official negligence as our own county formerly did. —[G. V. National.]

CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific coast that he is about to close the business, with a view of refitting for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention, during the ensuing fall, to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the 1st day of July, 1864. Those, therefore, who may desire his services, will apply within a reasonable time.

Doctor Czapkay desires to assure those who are inquiring for his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their case respectively demand.

Those who hold Contracts, guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay, before the 1st day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. Dr. L. J. Czapkay takes this opportunity of observing, that all letters are only opened and replied to by himself, and the latter as promptly as possible.

If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be superceded, as instructions for diet, regimen, and the general treatment of the case itself, (including the remedies) will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.
